Qualifications

Before the commissioner can issue a referee license, the applicant must produce sufficient information and documentation to support their proficiency and complete understanding of the Minnesota Rules and the Association of Boxing Commissions Unified Rules or approved ruleset for the combative sport(s) they wish to be licensed.

The items that may assist the commissioner in evaluating your application include, but are not limited to:

- Any certificate of completion of a referee's training program from another state or other regulating body under the Association of Boxing Commissions.
- A resume with at least three professional references who can verify your years of experience.
- A log of your experience as an amateur and/or professional referee.
- Licensure from another state or regulatory body that regulates combative sports.

If you have no prior experience, but are interested in becoming a licensed referee, contact the Department of Labor and Industry, Office of Combative Sports, for more information.

Data practices notice

The information you as an individual, or business entity, provide in this application will be used by the Department of Labor and Industry staff members to determine if you meet the license requirements. Before a license is issued to you, Minnesota Statute Section 270C.72, subd. 4, requires you to provide your Social Security number and, where applicable, your Minnesota Business Identification number on this application. The other information is required to process your application. Failure to provide the requested information may delay the processing of your application or may be grounds for denying your application. Under Minnesota Statute Section 13.41, the information you provide on this application, except for you name and address, is private data while the application is pending. Disclosure of this information to others may occur as authorized or required by law, including but not limited to the Attorney General's Office, the Department of Revenue, the Department of Human Services, upon court order, or for the purpose of verification and investigation. After you are licensed, the information you provide, except for your Social Security number and data otherwise protected, becomes public data and may be released to anyone upon request.

License fee

The Minnesota Office of Combative Sports does not accept any payments received through US Mail. By submitting this application, you are agreeing to have the promoter cover the cost of your license. Payment must be approved by the promoter.

All licenses expire one calendar year from the date they were issued. A new license application must be submitted each year.
